Remarks / Feedback

The NDLI User awareness workshop was conducted by the Library & Information Department of Shri Govindrao Munghate Arts & Science College and NDLI Club. The workshop was chaired by Dr. Rajabhau Munghate, Principal of the college, while Dr. Ashish Raut, IQAC Co-ordinator and Head of Library department, Shivaji College, Akola, was guest speaker and Club President Dr. Abhay Solunke. On this occasion, Principal Rajabhau Munghate, while commenting on the contribution of Shri Govindrao Munghate in the District Library in Gadchiroli District, said that the first library in the Gadchiroli district was started by respected Govindrao Munghate sir. He said that during the Corona pandemic, you could not go to the actual library and read books, but the digital library can enrich our knowledge by reading at home. Explaining the benefits of Digital library, he said that he was happy and proud to have Munghate College at the forefront of NDLI among the many colleges coming under Gondwana University. Dr. Ashish Raut, Chief Guide, while discussing the purpose of setting the NDLI clubs, said that Munghate College has set up NDLI clubs in remote areas like Kurkheda to provide tribal students in the area with digital library platform and he congratulated Dr. Munghate sir for this admirable initiative. Speaking further, Dr. Raut said that NDLI allows us to read books from different parts of the world, journals and magazines from our place, and also provides various books to the students who are preparing for the competitive exams for example, NDA. Digital libraries are open 24 hours a day and you can read them anytime from any place. That is why he termed NDLI as 'The endless ocean of knowledge.' He clarified the concept of NDLI. Through NDLI, students can also listen or watch the essays, lectures, solved question papers of their subject from their mobiles and laptops. There are various sites available for this and the government has made available various courses on internet, appealing to the students to take advantage of it, said Dr. Raut. The Introductory speech of the program was given by Dr. Anil Bhojar, Secretary, NDLI Club. Dr. Rakhi Shambharkar was the conductor and the vote of thanks was taken by Dr. Ravindra Vikhar. Executive members of the club, all members of the college, Professors, Non-teaching staff, research students, etc. were present for this workshop. Dr. Ashish Raut answered various questions asked by various students and professors. All the faculty members and the non-teaching staff have been instrumental in making the workshop a success.
